

Microscope Labeling

Name: _____

Word bank for microscope labeling. Not all terms will be used.

- light source eyepiece body tube objectives fine adjustment knob
- diaphragm base coarse adjustment knob stage clips
- arm revolving nosepiece stage balance lenses

Name: _____ Period: _____ Date: _____

Stage	eyepiece	body tube	Base	Arm	Diaphragm
Fine adjustment knob		stage clips		Coarse adjustment knob	Nosepiece
objective lenses				Mirror or light source

1. I am in charge of the amount of light that enters the body tube, what am I?
I? _____
2. I send light up into a hole through a stage, object and lenses, allowing you to view your object, what am I? _____
3. I hold slides in place so they do not move around while you look at them, what am I?

4. You carry the microscope using me, I also support the body tube, what am I

5. I rotate to change the magnification power needed, I also hold the objective lenses, what am I

6. I support the microscope slide being viewed, what am I? _____
7. I am located on the nosepiece and range from 10x to 40x magnification, what am I?

8. I sharpen the image you are observing, what am I? _____
9. I support the microscope, and am also the bottom part of it, what am I?

10. I am the knob you use first, I raise and lower the body tube, what am I? _____
11. I contain the lens you look through, what am I? _____
12. I am the correct distance between the eyepiece lens and the objective lens, light also passes through me, what am I?
